

Resettlement Learning support for post day 1

You now have access to a formal learning offer to support you with continuing to undertake your day-to-day tasks and activities in the initial days, weeks and months post unification.

Learning will be available either digitally via MyLearning or locally through your team. You will be able to access the learning when you need it and apply it on the job.

As well as the formal learning offer, you will receive communications and where applicable, local / team briefings and guidance to help you understand the key changes to processes and ways of working.

Please click here for an overview of the learning that will be available.

Learning support for post day 1

The learning highlighted in purple reflects the mandatory learning that must be refreshed every three years; if you are up to date with this learning there is no need to re-complete.

Prior learning will be recognised and if you have come from a CRC your training record will be transferred; you won't need to re-complete learning that can be evidenced through your training record.
